Moscato, Pink Moscato, Sparkling Shiraz, Sparkling Sauvignon Blanc, Sparkling Pinot Grigio, Chardonnay Pinot Noir

SPARKLING PINOT GRIGIO

Region

Riverina

Appearance

Straw in colour

Bouquet

Subtle aromas of rose and lychee backed up with fresh honey

Palate

The soft and round palate is brought to life with a little fizz

Winemaking

Selected parcels of fruit are harvested and handled gently to help reduce the colour pigment of this variety, while retaining its aromatic qualities. The juice is handled with oxygen to help remove the pink colour of this variety. The juice is then cold settled. Fermentation takes place at elevated temperatures to enhance textural feel of this variety.

Wine Analysis

Alc/Vol : 10.5 % pH : 3.25 TA : 5.5 g/L

Cellaring

For immediate enjoyment. The wine will, however, continue to soften and develop more complexity over the next 2 years.

Suggested Cuisine

A tasty companion for salads, fish, light pasta dishes, and fresh fruit
